

COFFEE, CONVERSATION & CEUs

During these unpredictable times, many are experiencing disenfranchised loss. With the goal of honoring all types of loss and highlighting elements of hope we invite you to join us for our March Coffee, Conversation and CEUs virtual training on Carrying Individual and Collective Grief in proud partnership with Kelsey Hoeper-Albassam, Clinical School and Community Coordinator for Willow House.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify components of disenfranchised grief and ambiguous loss
- Discover strategies/activities for working with prolonged grief
- Identify aspects of posttraumatic growth

Meet the Presenter: Kelsey Hoeper-Albassam

Kelsey Hoeper-Albassam joined Willow House as the Clinical School and Community Coordinator in August of 2020. Kelsey provides in-school grief support group facilitation, crisis intervention consultation, and educational presentations about grief in school and community settings. After earning her Bachelor's Degree from Lake Forest College, Kelsey went on to earn a Master's Degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Roosevelt University. She is a certified thanatologist and grief support specialist with specialized training in EMDR, Somatic Experiencing, and mindfulness meditation.
